Suit for 110,000 for personal injuries was filed in the 41st district court Monday morning by Abelino Telles against the El Paso Electric railroad. The nishtiff set forth in his petition that on August 18, while driving a team on Eroadway, he was struck by a Second ward car running at a fast rate of speed. He alleges that the wagon was overturned and that he received several broken ribs and internal injuries. He also alleges that the motormas did not ring his bell and made no attempt to avoid the accident.

"DNE WONDERFUL NIGHT," TODAY

EXCITING PROGRAM AT BIJOU. "The President's Special," an exciting two part dramatic production, will be presented to the public today at the Bijou. This is an exceptionally fine picture and contains a great number of exciting scenes, among them a race between the president's special train and an automobile driven by Gertrude McCoy. A realistic scene of a wreck and a vision of a head switchman after he went to sleep at the switch is also a wonderful piece of work.

The Hearst-Sells Weekly containing some interesting events including the late European war maneuvers, will also be on the program.

Tuenday, Cecolia Loftus, former teading woman for Sir Henry Irving, will be seen in The City of Promine, a feature of the highest quality and containing an abundance of humor. Better attend the mastinee and avoid the crowds at night, as many will want to see this picture. Regular prices will be charged.—Advertisement.

"MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY."
Episode No. 5 of the "Million Dollar Mystery." Thanhouser's greatest production, will be shown at the Greche today. This instalment of two reels in today. This instalment of two reels is the most interesting yet pictured. It is full of thrills and startling action. Most of the action is hald in mid-ocean, where Florence (Flo Labedie) leaps from the ocean liner in the dead of night and battles with the waves, but is finally rescued by a fishing schooner. It is one of the most realistic scenes ever shown anywhere. Be sure and see it. The Mutual Weskly No. 85 showing many interesting current events is also on today's bill. Come early.—Advertisement.
